Lara Saves the Concert

By Annette Smith
Illustrated by Teresa Culkin-Lawrence

Flying Colours

Title	Lara Saves the Concert
Levels	15–16/17
Running words	400

For Review Only

You can also read Flying Colours books online.

Go to www.flying-colours.com.au

Lara Saves the Concert

By Annette Smith

Illustrated by Teresa Culkin-Lawrence

For Review Only

Chapter 1 Getting Ready for the Concert 2

Chapter 2 Waiting for the Concert to Begin 6

Chapter 3 Lara Helps Out 12

Chapter 1

Getting Ready for the Concert

Mum and Pete and Lara were getting ready to go down to the park.

This evening the children from school were having a concert in the park for their parents.

"We are going to have to hurry," said Pete. "We can't be late."

For Review Only

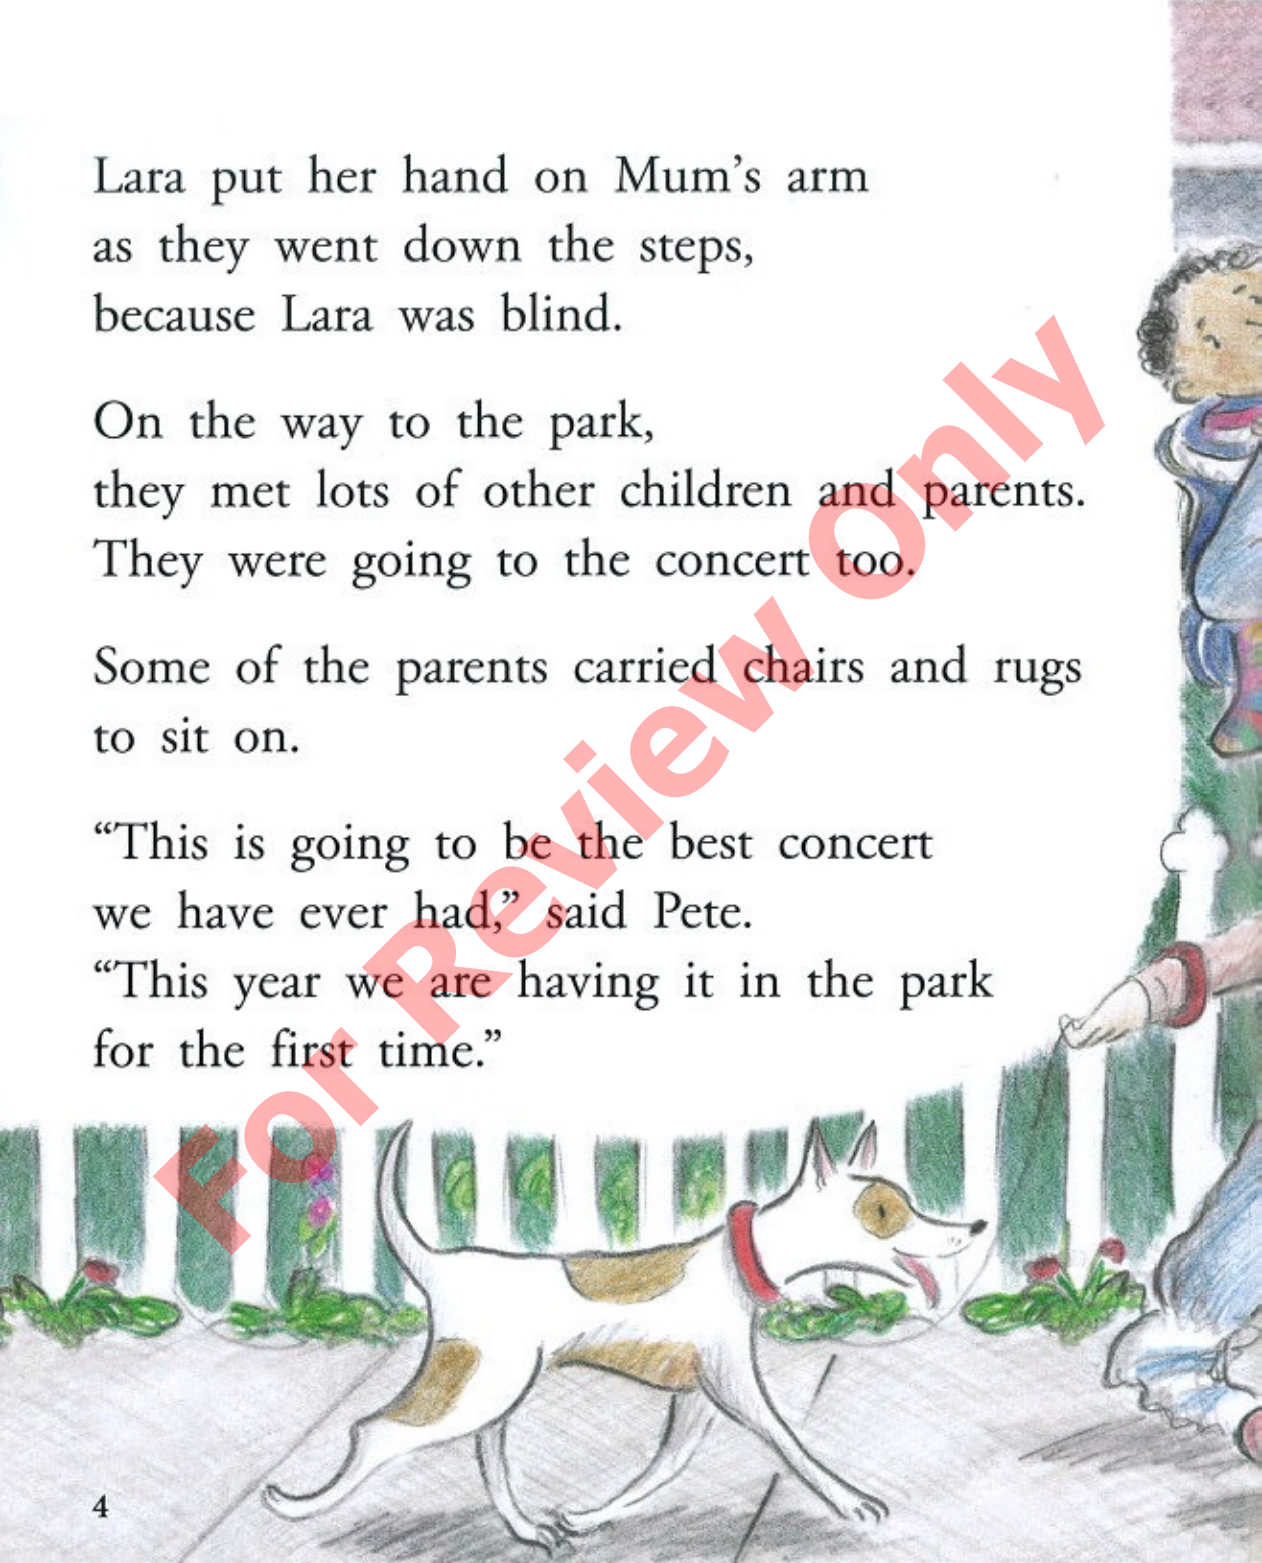

For Review Only

Lara put her hand on Mum's arm
as they went down the steps,
because Lara was blind.

On the way to the park,
they met lots of other children and parents.
They were going to the concert too.

Some of the parents carried chairs and rugs to sit on.

"This is going to be the best concert
we have ever had," said Pete.
"This year we are having it in the park
for the first time."

For Review Only

For review only

Chapter 2

Waiting for the Concert to Begin

When they got to the park,
Pete ran to sit with the other children.

Mum put the rug on the grass,
and Lara sat down with her.

Everyone waited.

Soon it was time for the concert to begin.

Everyone waited … and waited.

For Review Only

For Review Only