Two-timer

By Alan Trussell-Cullen

Illustrated by Chantal Stewart

Title	Two-timer
Levels	15–16/17
Running words	461

For Review Only

You can also read Flying Colours books online.

Go to www.flying-colours.com.au

Two-timer

By Alan Trussell-Cullen
Illustrated by Chantal Stewart

For Review Only

Chapter 1	A New Cat	2
Chapter 2	Bigger and Bigger	8
Chapter 3	The Morning Cat and the Night Cat	12

A New Cat

Toby lived at 36 Park Street.
One day a cat turned up at his house.
He rubbed against Toby's legs.
He climbed on Toby's knee.

"This cat likes me," said Toby.
"Can we keep him?"

Toby's dad and mum asked everyone
if they had lost a cat.
Everyone said no.

"He doesn't have a home," said Toby's dad.

"I think we can keep him," said Toby's mum.

The cat had long whiskers,
so they called him Whiskers.

For Review Only

For Study Only

Nina lived at 42 Park Street.
One day a cat turned up at her house.
He rubbed against Nina's legs.
He climbed on Nina's knee.

"This cat likes me," said Nina.
"Can we keep him?"

Nina's dad and mum asked everyone
if they had lost a cat.
Everyone said no.

"He doesn't have a home," said Nina's dad.

"I think we can keep him," said Nina's mum.

The cat had a curly tail,
so they called him Curly.

For Review Only

Whiskers liked to eat.
Toby fed him every morning and every night.

For Review Only

Curly liked to eat.
Nina fed him every morning and every night.

For Review Only