Making a Book

Julie Haydon

Flying Colours

Making a Book

Julie Haydon

For Review Only

Chapter 1	The Author	2
Chapter 2	What Kind of Book?	4
Chapter 3	The Idea	6
Chapter 4	Planning the Book	9
Chapter 5	The Words	12
Chapter 6	Putting the Book Together	14
Chapter 7	At the Printer	21
Chapter 8	The Readers	23
Glossary and Index		24

Chapter 1

The Author

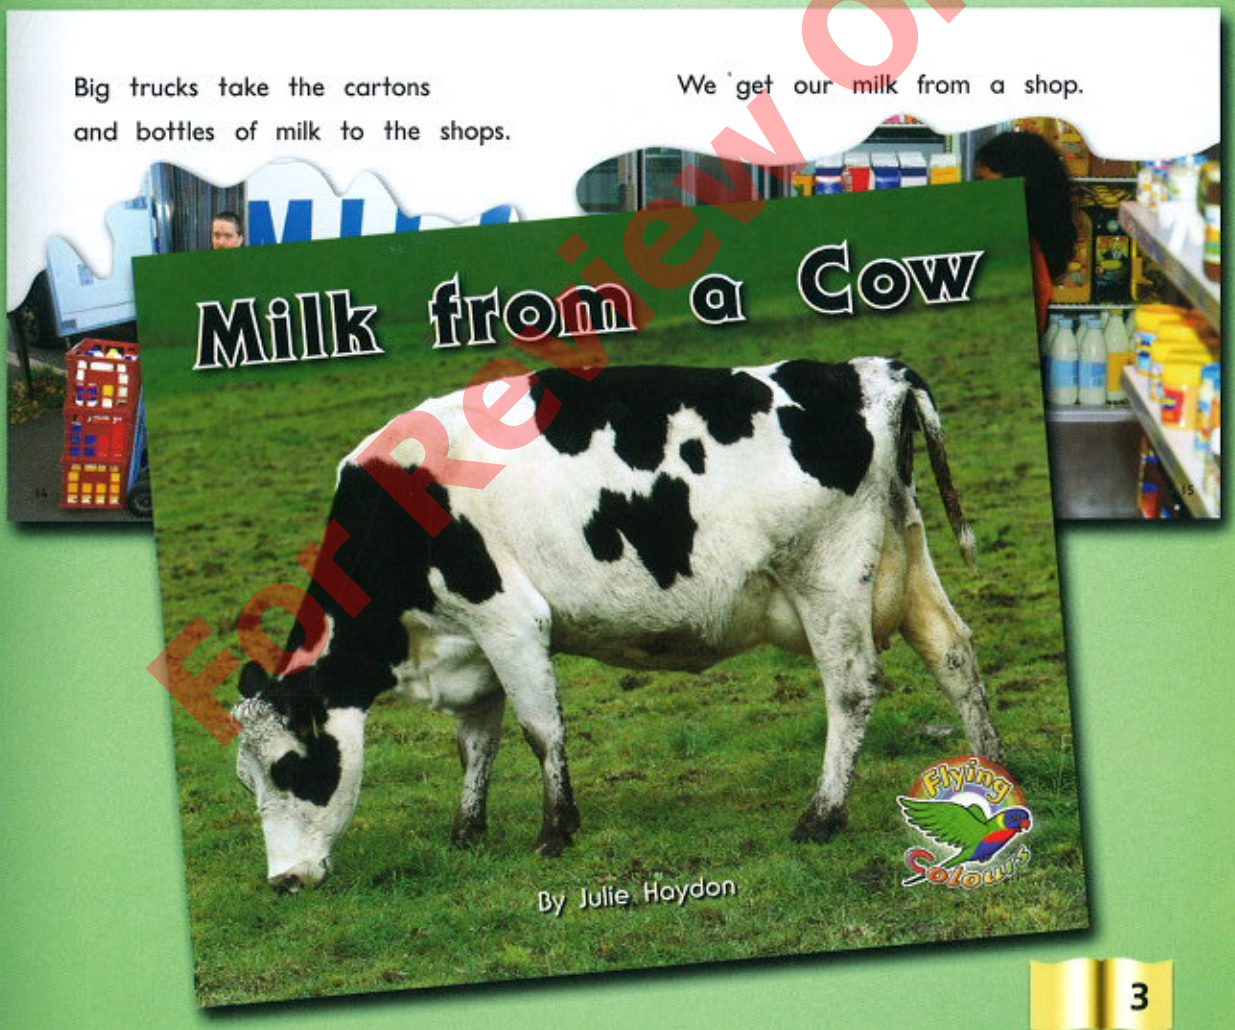

My name is Julie Haydon.
I am an author.
I write books for children.

For Review Only

This is one of my books.
It is called Milk from a Cow.

How is a book like this made?

For Review Only

Chapter 2

What Kind of Book?

First, the people who are going to make, or publish, my book tell me what they want.

For Review Only

They want a non-fiction book on food.

The book must be sixteen pages long.
It will have photographs in it.

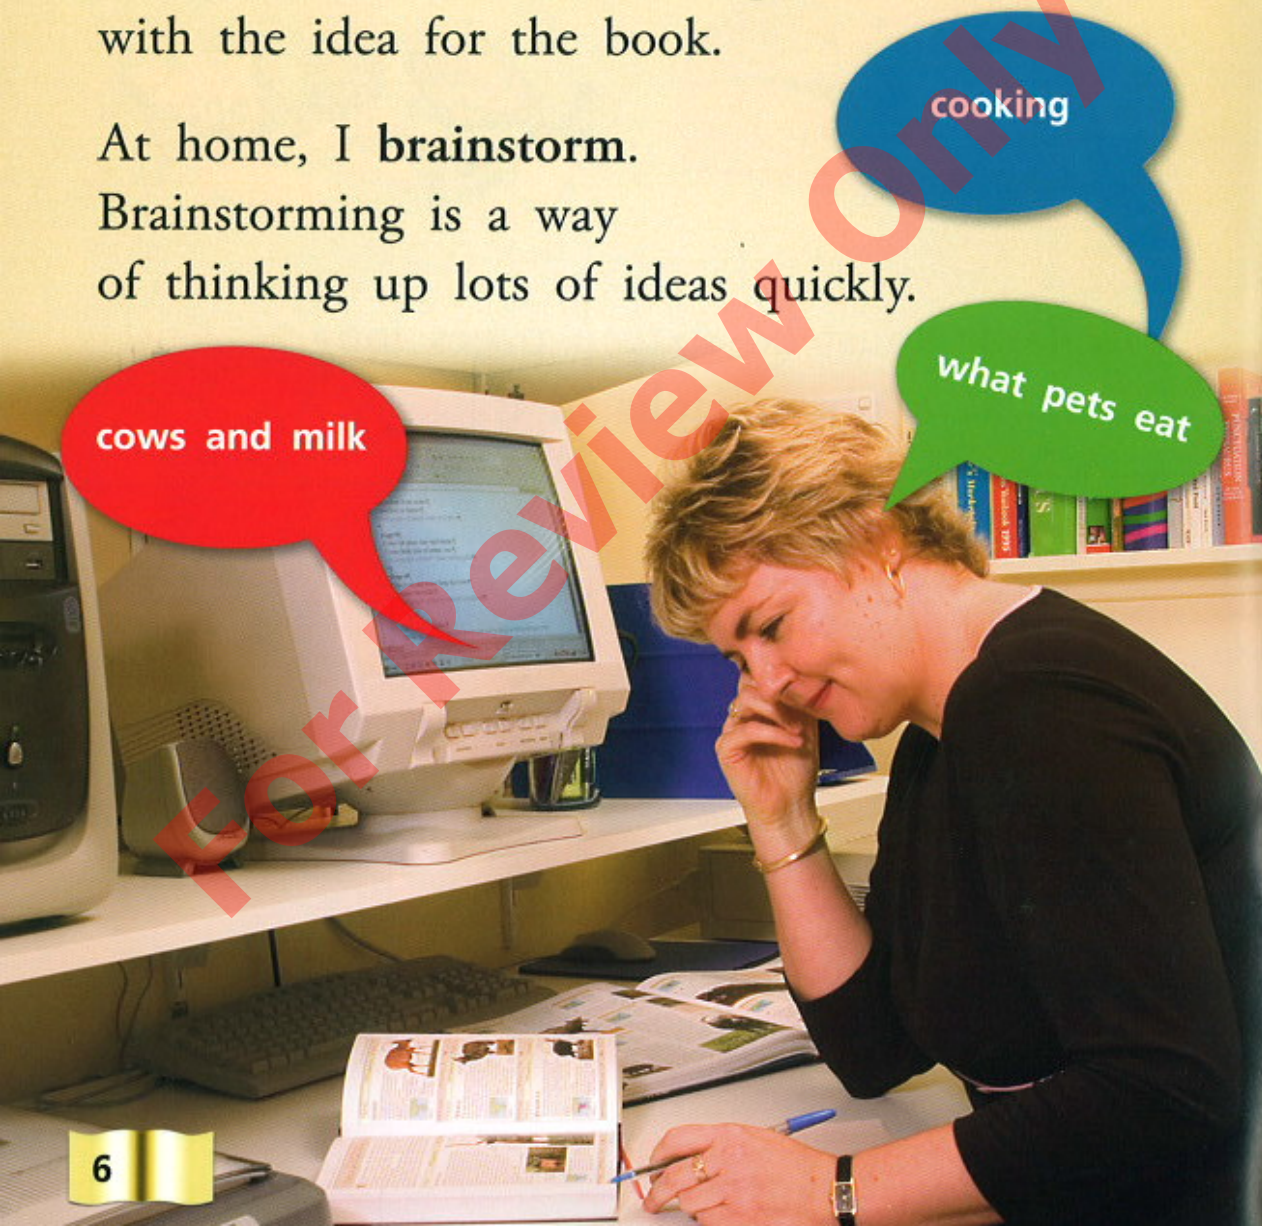

For Review Only

Chapter 3

The Idea

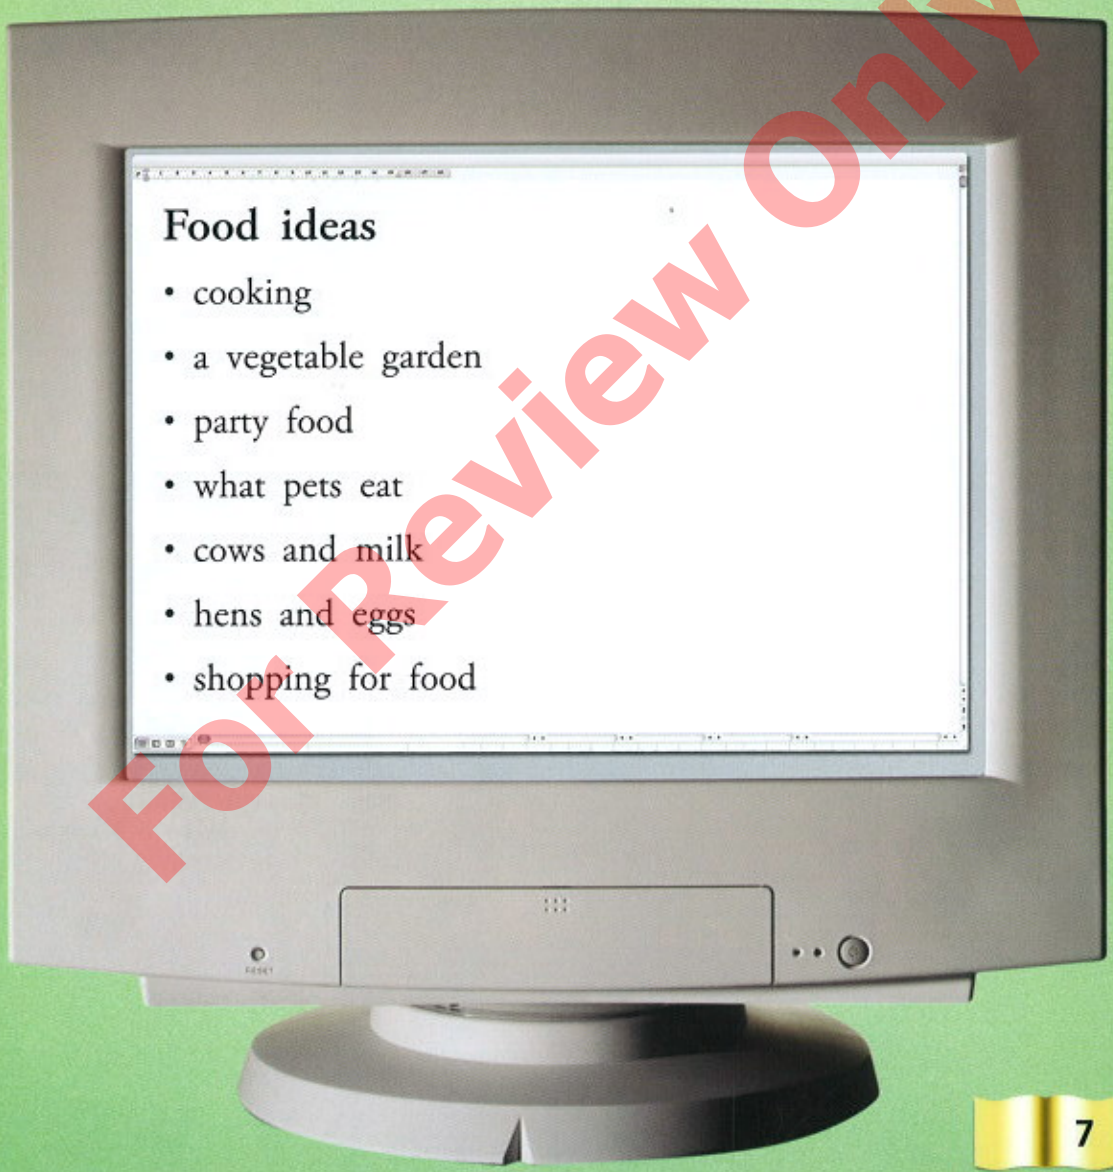

It is time for me to come up with the idea for the book.

At home, I brainstorm. Brainstorming is a way of thinking up lots of ideas quickly.

For Review Only

I write a list of ideas.
I do this on my computer.
The list looks like this:

For Review Only