Go, Gina!

By Julie Bryant
Illustrated by Warwick Bennett

Title	Go, Gina!
Levels	17–18/19
Running words	520

For Review Only

You can also read Flying Colours books online.

Go to www.flying-colours.com.au

Go, Gina!

By Julie Bryant
Illustrated by Warwick Bennett

For Review Only

Chapter 1	Before the Race	2
Chapter 2	A Flying Start	6
Chapter 3	The Big Crash	12

Chapter 1

Before the Race

It was race day at last.
Gina was feeling very excited.
She had arrived at the BMX track early with her parents.

Every day for three weeks,
Gina had come down to the track
with her dad to practise.
Now she was ready for her first race.

For Review Only

For Review Only

"Hi!" Gina called to Carlos and two other children.
"This is going to be great fun.
I can hardly wait for our race!"

"The track looks good," said Carlos.
"I have just checked it out.
But we'll have to be careful on the whoop-de-doos.
They could be slippery!"

Soon it was their turn.
They pushed their bikes over to the starting gate.

For Review Only

For Review Only

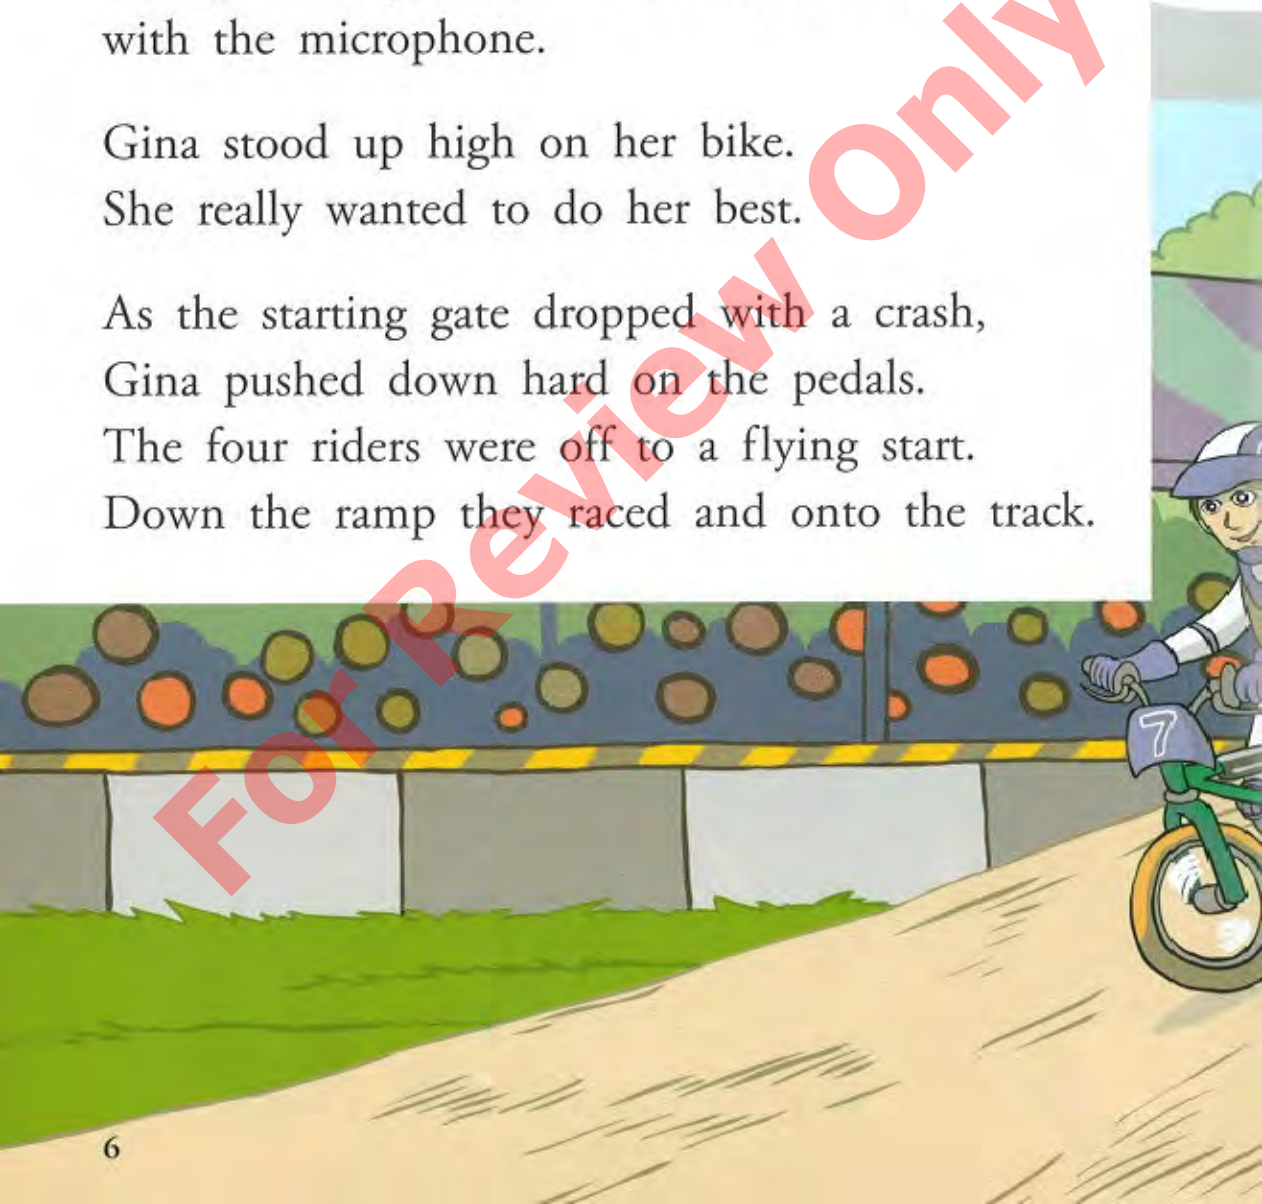

Chapter 2

A Flying Start

"Are you ready, riders?" called the man with the microphone.

Gina stood up high on her bike.
She really wanted to do her best.

As the starting gate dropped with a crash,
Gina pushed down hard on the pedals.
The four riders were off to a flying start.
Down the ramp they raced and onto the track.

For Review Only

For Preview Only