The Rainbow Clubhouse

By Jay Sanders

Illustrated by Suzie Byrne

Flying Colours

Title	The Rainbow Clubhouse
Levels	17–18/19
Running words	483

For Review Only

You can also read Flying Colours books online.

Go to www.flying-colours.com.au

The Rainbow Clubhouse

By Jay Sanders
Illustrated by Suzie Byrne

For Review Only

Chapter 1	The Old Cubby House	2
Chapter 2	A New Friend	6
Chapter 3	Painting the Cubby	10

Chapter 1

The Old Cubby House

Becky looked out her bedroom window into the yard next door.
The house had been sold to a family from Hong Kong.
Today they were moving in.
Becky saw a girl in the yard.

For Review Only

For Review Only

Becky opened her bedroom window.
"Hello!" she called out. "I'm Becky!"

The girl looked up and smiled.
"My name is Su Ying," she said.
"Would you like to come over to my house?"

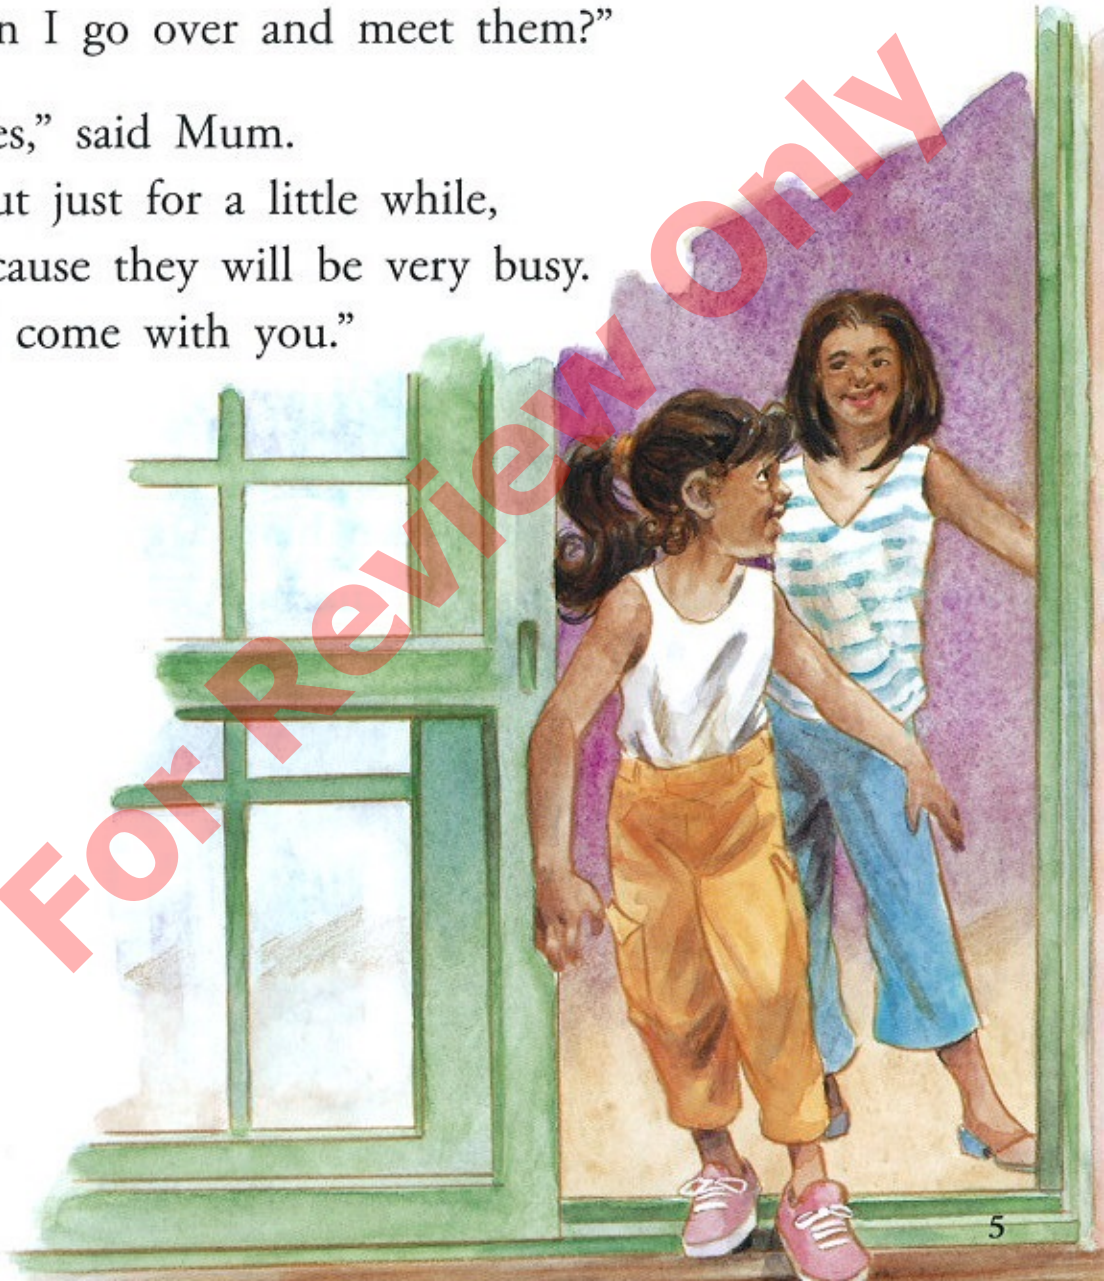

Becky smiled back.
"Okay," she said, and ran down the stairs.

For Review Only

"Mum," Becky said,
"a new family has moved in next door.
Can I go over and meet them?"

"Yes," said Mum.
"But just for a little while,
because they will be very busy.
I'll come with you."

For Review Only

Chapter 2

A New Friend

In the corner of the yard
was a run-down cubby house.

Becky and Su Ying went over to the cubby, while Mum talked to Su Ying's parents.

"I have never had a little cubby house like this before," said Su Ying.
"In Hong Kong we didn't even have a garden.
We lived in a big apartment building
in the middle of the city."

For Review Only

"We could fix up this cubby," said Becky, "and turn it into a clubhouse!"

"What is a clubhouse?" asked Su Ying.

"A clubhouse is where you meet your friends and do lots of fun things together," said Becky.

"I would like to have some new friends," said Su Ying.

For Review Only