The Toytown helicopter said, "I can see a new racing car coming down the road."

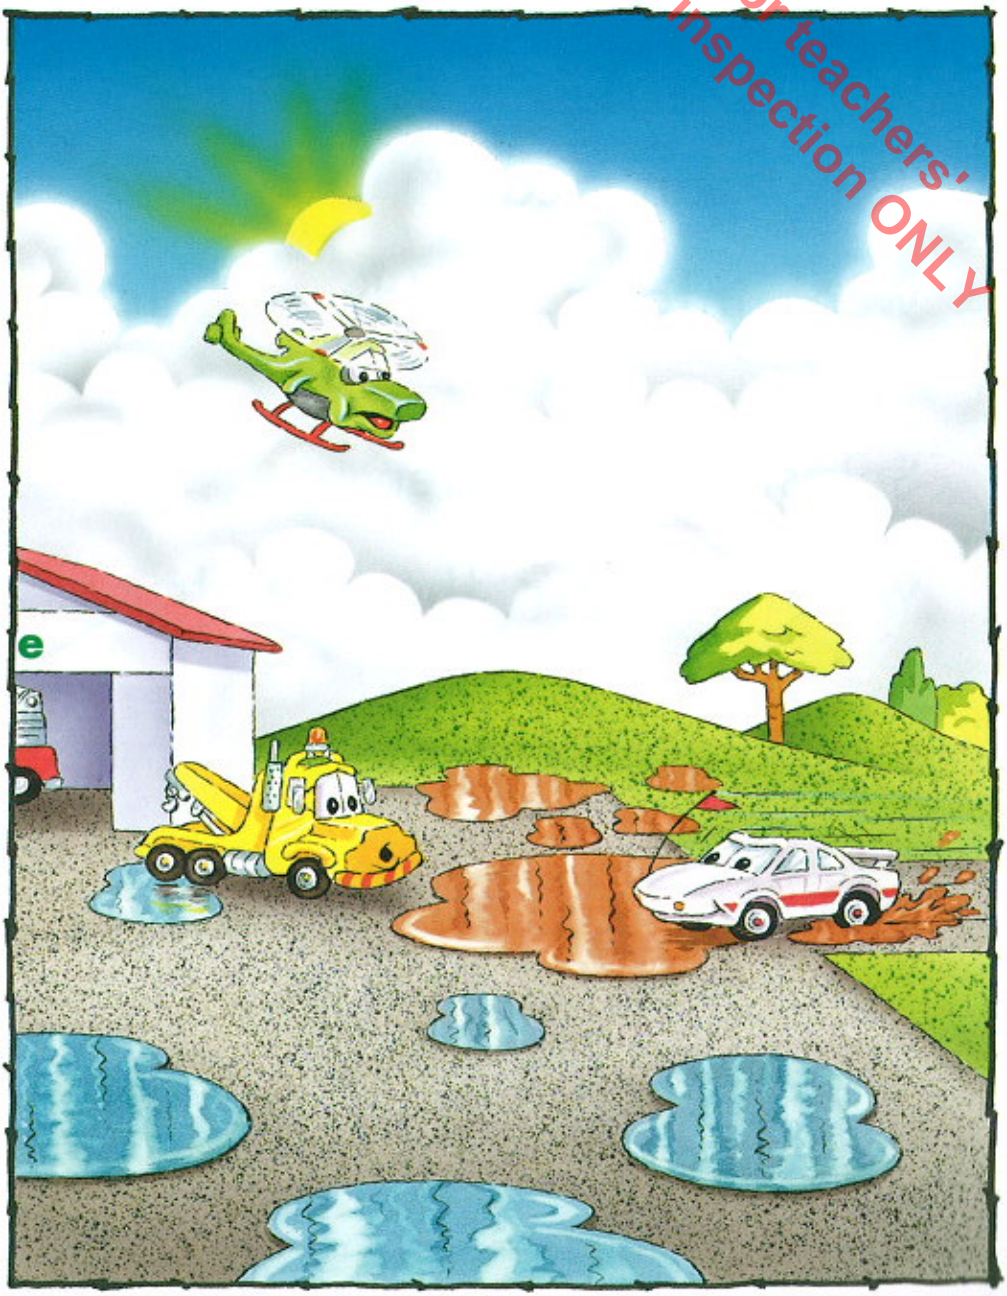

The tow truck
came out of the garage
to have a look.

"That racing car
is going too fast!"
said the tow truck.
"It is racing in and out
of the puddles!"

The racing car
went into a muddy puddle.

Splash! The water
went all over the tow truck.

"Ha! Ha! Ha!"
laughed the racing car.
"I'm having good fun!"
