One day, two frogs
jumped down from a tree.
Mother Frog said,
"I want to lay my eggs
in the river.
But I can't find a safe place.
I don't want the fish
to eat my eggs."

Father Frog said,
"I will make a safe place
for your eggs here by the river.
I can make a little pool
with a wall of mud around it.
Then you can lay your eggs
in the pool."
