Adam had broken his leg.
He had to stay in hospital
for two nights.

Adam said to the nurse,
"Tim is one of my best friends.
It is his birthday today,
and I can't go to his party."

"Oh, dear," said the nurse.
"But you can make him
a birthday card.
I will get you some pens and paper."

Adam made a card for Tim.
Then Adam put the card
on the table by his bed.
