Families and Feasts

For teachers' inspection ONLY

RUNNING WORDS: 210

PM+ Levels 14–15

Non-fiction

Feeding the Lambs (recount/letter)
Healthy Food (expository) Making Party Food (procedural)
Where Does Food Come From? (informative/explanatory)
Families and Feasts (report/observational)
Food is Fun (verse)

Chinese New Year

For teachers' inspection ONLY

At New Year,

families like to have feasts.

Each New Year

is named after an animal.

The year 2000 was the year of the dragon.

Everyone wishes for good luck.

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Lots of food is put on the table.

For teachers' inspection ONLY

rice

vegetables

noodles

fish

pork

duck

Everyone has a good time at Chinese New Year.

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Greek Name Day

For teachers' inspection ONLY

This little girl is called Maria.
Her grandmother is called Maria, too.

Every year,
all the family come home to see Grandmother Maria and little Maria on their Name Day.

The family eats lunch together outside under the trees.

For teachers' inspection ONLY