For teachers' inspection ONLY

Chooky and her nine little yellow chicks were walking around the farm.

Chooky was looking for food to give her babies.

She looked in the grass and she looked under the stones.

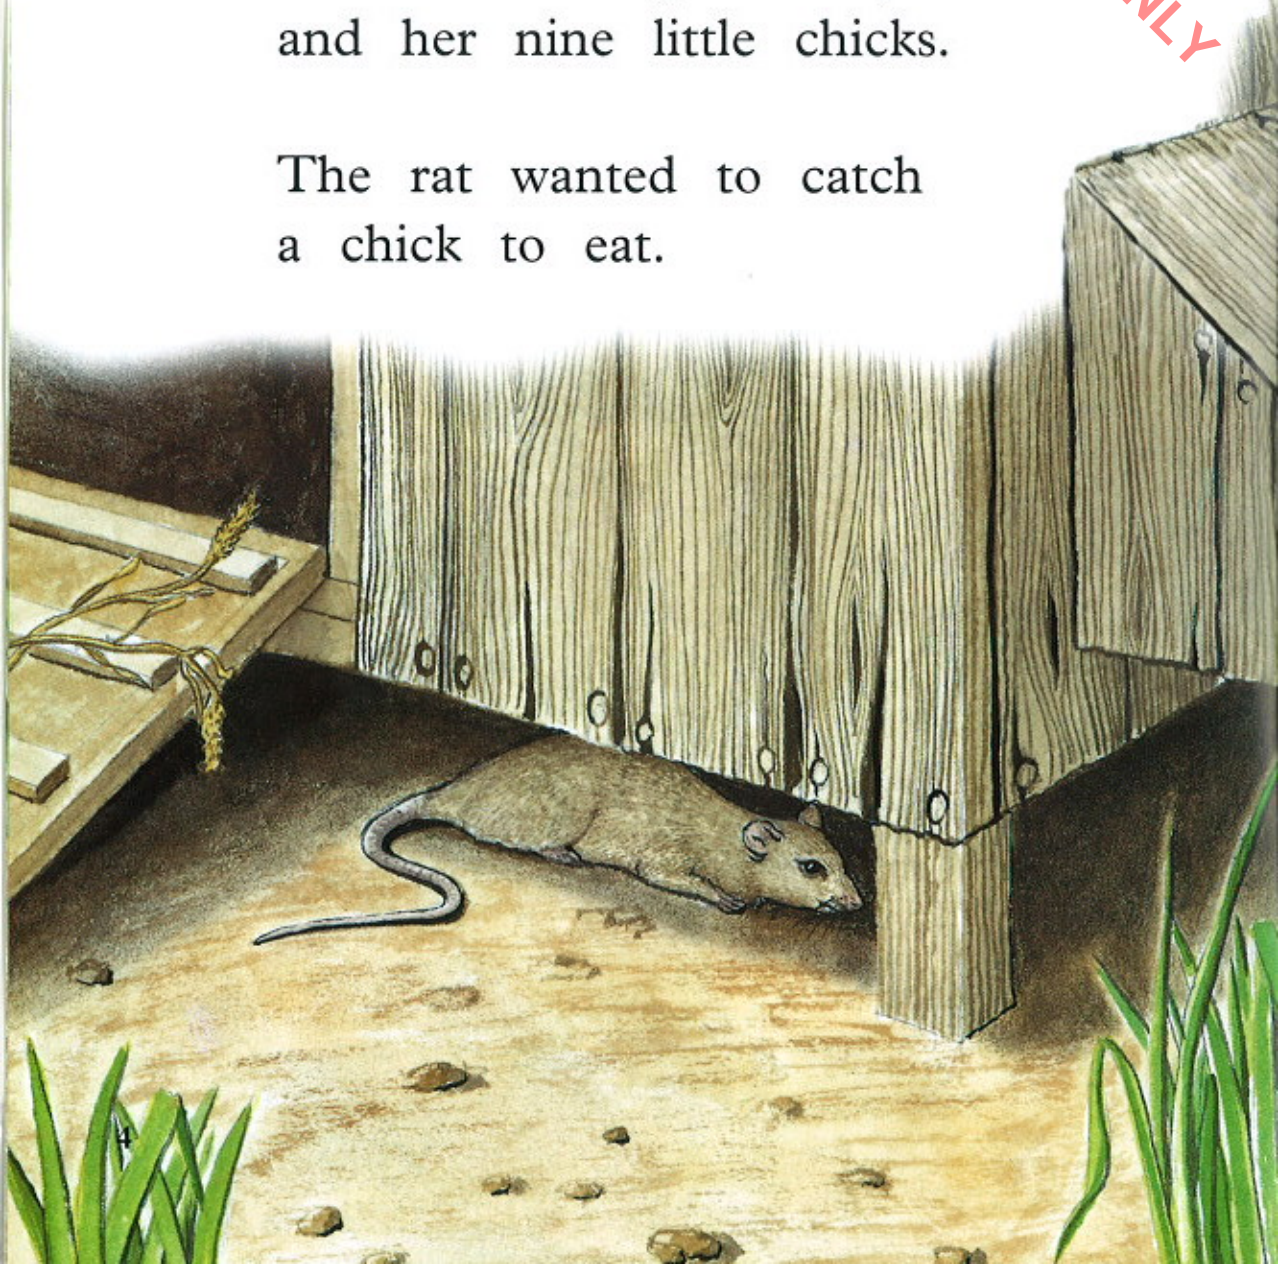

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Chooky didn't see a big rat hiding under the hen house. It was watching Chooky and her nine little chicks.

The rat wanted to catch a chick to eat.

Chooky always tried to keep her babies with her.
But it was very hard to watch them
all the time.

One little chick saw a worm
by the long grass
and ran to get it.
