Kylie and Zoë came out of their classroom.

They looked at all the children who were playing outside.

"I want to go and play by the trees," said Zoë. "But we can't."

"No," said Kylie.
"When we go past the wall,
some big girls jump out at us."

"And I always get scared," said Zoë.
"Let's just stay here and play."

"I can't see the girls today," said Kylie.
"We could try and get past the wall."

"But they will be hiding behind it and waiting for us," said Zoë.
"When we get there, they will jump out at us."

"No they won't," said Kylie.
"They are not always there."
