Emma and Matthew loved staying with their Gran and Grandad. They had an old house with lots of rooms to play in.

But best of all, Gran and Grandad had a big tree in their garden.

One morning,
Matthew looked out the window.
"It's windy again," he said to Emma,
"and we can't go out and climb the tree."

"It's raining, too," said Emma.
"We will have to play inside today."
