Tommy was happy today.

He was going to stay at his friend Robert's house for the night.

But Tommy was a little bit scared, too.

He had stayed at his gran's house,
but he had never stayed with a friend before.

"Hello, Tommy," smiled Robert's mother.
"Come on in.
I'm pleased you have come to stay.
You can put your bag in Robert's room.
Then I will get you something to eat."

The boys went into Robert's bedroom.

Tommy looked around the room.

"Mum has made up
this bed for you," said Robert.
"It's a good bed," he laughed,
jumping on it. "Look!"
