The Jets and the Rockets

Story by Jenny Giles Illustrations by Rachel Tonkin

Luke and Andrew were out on the field with the rest of their class.
They were going to play baseball.

Baseball was their favourite game.
Luke played for the Jets,
and Andrew played for the Rockets.

Luke said to Andrew,
"My team is going to win today."

Andrew shook his head.
"No," he said. "We will win.
The Rockets always win."

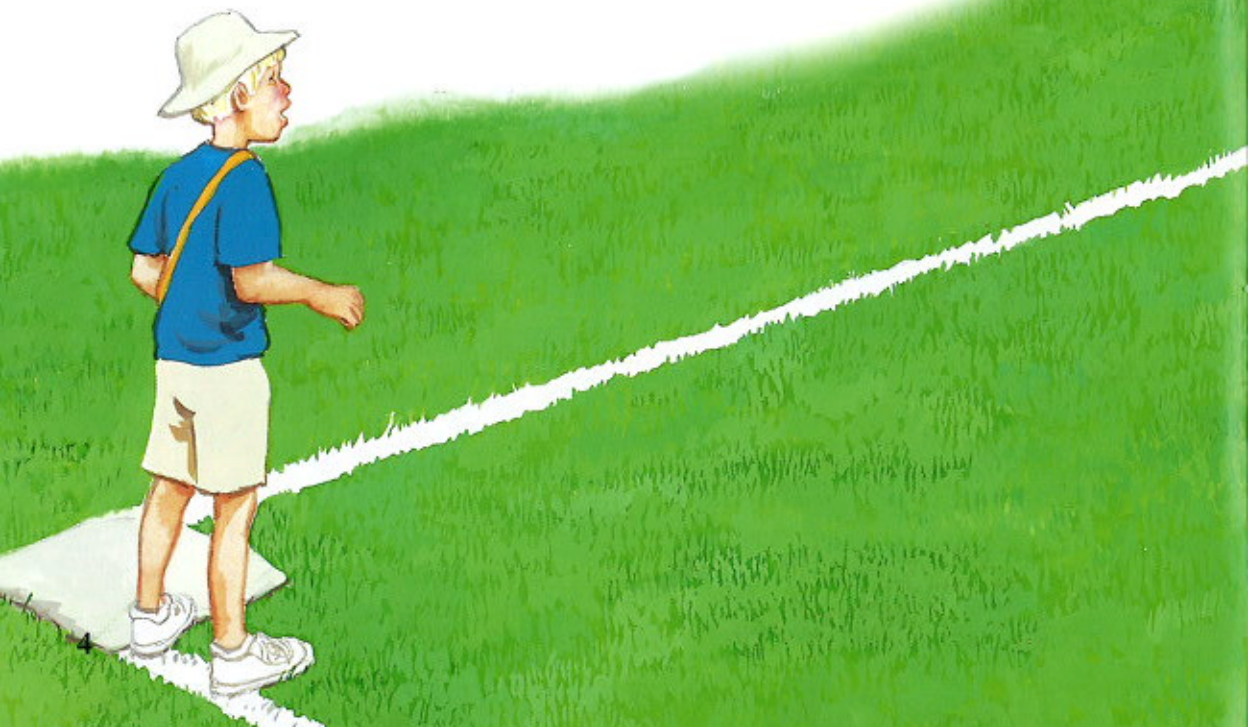

"Not today!" said Luke.

Luke ran onto the field with the Jets.
The Rockets went to sit in a line.

Zoë was the first to bat.
The ball came towards her,
and she hit it hard.

"Go, Zoë!" shouted all the Rockets.

Zoë started to run.

The ball bounced near Luke.
He moved across to catch it,
and Zoë ran onto the base.

"Safe on first base!" called Miss Bell.
