
PM+
The Giant Seeds
Story by Heather Hammonds
Illustrations by Richard Hoit

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Mrs Miller said to her class,
"I would like you to bring
flower seeds to school tomorrow.
We will plant them, and water them,
and watch them grow."

"This could be fun,"
Becky whispered to Georgia.

But Georgia was wondering
what seeds she could bring.
Her family lived in an apartment,
and they didn't have a garden.

For teachers' inspection ONLY

That evening,
Georgia asked her mother
if she had any plant seeds.

"You can have some of these,"
said Mum.
"I've been leaving them
on the windowsill to dry.
Here you are."

"They are giant seeds!"
said Georgia. "Thanks, Mum!"

For teachers' inspection ONLY

For teachers' inspection ONLY

For teachers' inspection ONLY

The next day, the children brought some seeds to school. Georgia's were by far the biggest. Everyone stared at them.

"What sort of seeds are those?" Becky asked.

"They are giant seeds," answered Georgia. "I'm going to have the biggest plants in the class!"

