The Relay Race

Story by Jenny Giles

Illustrations by Rachel Tonkin

For teachers' inspection ONLY

"Look at the big children over there," said Kylie. "Can we have a race like that, Miss Bell?"

"I'm sorry," said Miss Bell. "The big children are running relay races all day."

For teachers' inspection ONLY

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Then Miss Bell said,
"But you can have a little relay race over here if you like."

"Yes!" shouted the children.

Zoë saw two batons
on the grass.
"We can have a red team
and a blue team," she said.

For teachers' inspection ONLY

For teachers' inspection ONLY

"Run around the tree with the baton,"
said Miss Bell.
"Then come back to your team and sit down
at the back of the line."

