Riley went into the garden.

Riley and his family were moving to a new house
in the morning.

Riley climbed up into the big tree.

"I'm going to miss you, tree,"
said Riley.
"I love sitting up in your branches.
If I sit very still up here
I can see lots of birds."

Riley sat on his swing.

"I'm going to miss you, swing,"
he said.
"I can go up and down on you."
