A poor miller has three sons. But the miller dies. He leaves his mill to his first son, a donkey to his second son and a cat to his third son, Jack. Jack isn't very happy.

Puss asks for a hat, a pair of boots and a bag.
He says goodbye, puts on his boots and hat,
and he goes fishing in the river.

Wow! There are a lot of fish. The King likes fish. I'm going to the palace now.

Puss goes to the palace. His bag is full of fish.
A guard is standing at the gate.

I want to see the King.

Why, cat?

I have a gift for him
from my master, the Prince of Carabas.

The guard takes Puss to the King. Puss bows before the King, the Queen and their daughter, princess Cecile.

My master, the Prince of Carabas, sends you these fine fish from his river.

Wonderful! I love fish!
We thank the Prince.
